

SOUND BAFFLE FOR PORTABLE TELEPHONE HANDSET

Abstract of the Disclosure

A sound baffle attached to a telephone handset comprises a pair of telescopically connected members shaped and dimensioned to act as a sound guide in combination with a reflecting cover plate that can be obliquely adjusted to 5 direct the sound waves emitted by the user toward the handset microphone, and to muffle his conversation to the surroundings for improved privacy.

10

2002PA.618